

Town Board Honors Red Hat Society

Monday, 28 June 2010 11:13

Islip, NY – During National Women’s History Month, the Islip Town Board paid tribute to the Red Hat Society, the largest international social organization for women.

Founded in 1998, the organization promotes fun, friendship, and solidarity among women over fifty.

Pictured are members of the society with Town Supervisor Phil Nolan (center) and (right to left) Town Clerk Regina Duffy, Councilwoman Trish Bergin, and Councilman Steve Flotteron.